to place a police inspector, or at least an European constable, in charge of each to superintend the signals; and he might be aided by one or two Sikhs or natives. This however would not seriously diminish the available force, as the four or five hill stations established would require altogether but a very few men. At the existing police stations the inspectors now in charge could act as signalmen, a semaphoric mast being provided for each house. There remains however one question—that of providing an adequate guard. It would, even now, be scarcely safe to leave three men during the night in a lonely and isolated house, if any well planned surprise by a Chinese gang were attempted. Could not an arrangement be made to detail, say, four or five soldiers from the garrison for daily and night duty at each station? An extra ten cents a head per day to be paid by the Colonial Government, with a certain release from drill and parades, would ensure willingness on the part of the guards and would not seriously trench upon the Colonial exchequer. The troops now in barracks can scarcely be said to be over-worked, and considering the strength present could surely spare the few men (some twenty or twenty-five) in all required. The idea we have thus hastily sketched out has been fully canvassed in many quarters and is much approved of. No harm at least could be done if a report on its feasibility were called for from the various departments interested. That anything which tends to their greater safety will be heartily approved of by the colonial public there can be no doubt.

LOCAL.

A PRIVATE meeting of several gentlemen interested in the reorganization of the "China Asiatic Society" was held a day or two since at the residence of the Rev. D. B. Morris (the present secretary of that moribund institution), for the purpose of discussing what measures could be taken to that end. In the course of conversation it was discovered that there were still members of the old society in Hongkong, and it was determined that they should be communicated with, and their inclinations ascertained. If willing to remain as an associated body, several leading and other residents would be willing to join the society; while on the other hand if desirous of closing their connection with it, a new society might be formed under the old title. The meeting being conversational in its nature no detailed report need be given, but we trust that before long some public steps will be taken in the matter. It is a matter for congratulation that a strong desire exists to reorganize so important an association.

We learn that the Annual Examination of scholars at the Government Central School will be held to-morrow, the 29th instant, at 11.30 a.m. His Excellency the Governor will be present at 2 p.m., when the prizes will be distributed. We trust that all interested in native education will attend.

All sorts of absurd rumours have been in circulation amongst those willing to believe anything, concerning the arrest of fictitious native coolies implicated in the murder of the late Mr. Holworthy—rumours which satisfy certain persons of sanguine temperament, and do little harm to anybody. We observe, however that an insignificant hand-bill was issued yesterday, which placarded the offer of a free pardon to any accomplice to the said murder (provided that he did not commit the actual murderer) who should come forward to give such evidence against the actual murderer as would lead to his conviction. This notice has been also issued in Chinese, but not, we are of opinion with sufficient prominence. Two char-coolies formerly employed by the deceased gentleman were charged by Inspector Blackwood on suspicion, and were ordered by Mr. May to find security for their appearance during the next three months.

A SINGULAR and diabolical attempt at murder was made on board the Veritas, coolie ship, yesterday. Several coolies on board had become discontented and endeavoured to prevent any new coolies coming on board from signing engagements. One unfortunate man, however, did so with two companions; the latter were assaulted, but the man in question was thrown down into a cask, while two of the "anti-signers" endeavoured with a blunt chopper to beat him—going even so far as to provide a basin to catch the blood. The would-be murderers appeared before the Magistrate to-day.

At half-past four o'clock precisely, last Friday afternoon Jan. 8, the Right Wing and Head-quarters of the 73rd Regt. disembarked from H. M.'s steam troopship Himalaya, at the Tanjong Pagar Wharf, and headed by their fine band, marched out their quarters at Tanjong. The Himalaya, sailed at 10 o'clock for Galle direct, with the other wing of the 73rd Regiment, on the 11th.—Straits Times.

On the 11th at 6 a.m. the cutters of the Aeon and Serpent had a rowing match round the Powder hulk and back to the Serpent, a distance of nearly 4 miles. In each boat there was a crew of 10 men and a coxswain. The Aeon's boat came in the winner by about 300 yards—time about 55 minutes. Both crews pulled well together, and probably the result of the race would have been a little different, if the Serpent's men had been fresh out from home instead of being somewhat debilitated by their long service in the East.—Ibid.

TO-DAY'S POLICE.
Mr. May on the Bench.
A Chinachew man named Ng A-ngong was found last night in the pantry of Dr. Adams' house, East Point. The Doctor's Madras servant stated that he found him in the pantry last night about 6 o'clock, and that he could not clearly account for his being there. The pantry was in close proximity to the dining-room, the position of prisoner was too near to be comfortable, to the servant's idea at least. The dark servant therefore went for a constable, and met one at the foot of the Hill; but the Hindoo P. C. referred to politely informed the servant that he did duty only on the low road, and had nothing to do with any thieves caught up hills. The Inspector (Horspool), however, at once came up to the house, when the suspicious character was taken into custody.—The prisoner said he belonged to Chinachew junk, was a stranger here, and had lost his way from the Joss-House.—His Worship said that he could not understand in what way prisoner could get up the Hill if he had an honest intention of finding his way home. This, however, he would test by sending the Chinachew looking with him; if he could prove all his statements to be true, then a favorable impression would be made on the Court; if his statements were proved to be false, his case would be made worse than it now was. Inspector Horspool would take Dr. Adam's servant, and get him to point out the constable who refused to go and apprehend the prisoner, when desired so to do; and would bring him before the Bench.—On the prisoner's return, a coolie was produced who stated that the prisoner had told him he was going last evening to "chin-chin joss," but he could not say whether he went or not.—His Worship therefore ordered the prisoner to get security for $25 for one month.

Loo Asing and Chee Ace, ten emigrants well treated because of his infirmity for drink, and it seemed to have no effect.—Julius pleaded that he was sick; he could get Dr. Murray to certify that he was so.—Mr. May remarked that he was well enough to dissipate and dance till two in the morning. He would fine him $200, in default of payment to go to Gaol for six months.

Lo Asing and Chee Ace, ten emigrants this morning with having last night cut and wounded a fellow-emigrant with a knife or chopper, with intent to do grievous bodily harm. The complainant, who is dangerously ill in Hospital, was unable to be present; and the case was remanded for a day or two. His head was nearly severed from his body; but death has not yet resulted, and hopes were entertained that he would be able to appear in Court in a few days.

The CASE OF THE ITALIA.

The inquiry into the mortality on board the above-named vessel commenced yesterday and was resumed this afternoon, before the Hon. W. Keckwick, Italian Consul.

Benardo Aranguren, first officer on board the Italia, was first called. He said he joined the ship on June 27, 1868. He was sketchy about his unlawful possession of about fifty catties of opium and gambier, which prisoner said he bought from a dust-hawker.
The Inspector was requested to advertise the gambier in some way or other; and the case was remanded accordingly.

Another case of unlawful possession of a quantity of rice was also dealt with in much the same manner as the last, the prisoner's story being reserved for analysis by the Police. The story having been found correct, prisoner was discharged.

Andrew Quigley, an unemployed seaman who appears to employ himself principally in making a beast of himself, was discovered on the floor of the dock, sleeping off the continuous spirituous burs of the last three or four days. Yesterday and the day previous found him in custody and a state of "hot opium," and the "spree" would appear to have been renewed with increased vigour last night. Found last night in an incapable state, he was picked up by a constable, bundled into a chair and brought up to the Station.—In reply to the Board, the poor fellow (rubbing his eyes and looking from underneath his mop like a red night-signal) said "I can't say nothing sir."—Magistrate: Don't you recollect what I told you about appearing a third time?
That I would punish you, and have to take care of you, if you did not take care of yourself.
Prisoner: I didn't intend to come back again, sir.—Magistrate: Well, I must save you from dilettante tremens or something worse, and thereby keep my promise. We may have to bury you, you know; and you might commit some injury in the public. You must go to prison for three days. I must impose a fine, however, and will make it £5: I hope you cannot get it.

Julian de Zuleta, 3d officer, was next awake. The present is the second voyage he has undertaken in the Italia; and he is perfectly satisfied with everything on board.
As to the mortality on board, he was of opinion that the excessive and continuous use of opium, together with their continual exposure to the rain, was the chief cause.
Some came on board looking very sickly from consumption; and they would get their feet wet from rain or washing decks.

The Captain here remarked that the men were very careless when the decks were being washed, getting their feet wet, and not seeing that they were properly dried.

Dr. Adams said this would not cause their death.

Examination continued:—He saw medicine administered. The food was sufficient in every way, and he had no complaints to make.

The Captain here produced the medical book by Boussac, which he had used, and which he said had been recognized throughout France and Spain as a standard work on the medical subjects peculiar to ship-board.

Dr. Adams stated that to a man who knew nothing about how to distinguish between disease and symptoms, the diagnosis made by the Captain was a very natural one.

Jose Camacho, Chinese doctor, native of Amoy, an elderly-looking man, swarthy as a Christian, stated that he studied in Amoy according to Chinese form. He went to Havana in 1856, and practised as a doctor; he paid only half his passage in consideration of attendance given. He went to Havana as a doctor. He practised amongst his countrymen, but he could not practise legally as a doctor; and he traded at the same time. He could not put up a sign board as a doctor, and only practised amongst his countrymen. He was more properly speaking an apothecary, although he occasionally practised medicine.

The Captain here remarked that the men
were very careless when the decks were
being washed, getting their feet wet, and
not seeing that they were properly dried.

Dr. Adams said this would not cause
their death.

Examination continued:—He saw medicine administered. The food was good and plentiful, and there was nothing to complain of in the preparation of the food.

The Captain here stated that he did not choose to be a doctor; he had no sufficient clothing; they were accustomed to hot weather in Havana, had few clothes when they arrived in cold latitudes, and the change must have done them great harm. He had no medicine which he would have administered for such a disease; in fact, the disease was incurable, and was something like cholera—almost an incurable disease, when the swelling begins. On his first voyage to Havana, there were 220 passengers, and only somewhere about 12 or 13 died on the way.

The Captain here stated that he had taken about 500 from Havana, when only about a dozen died; but no special disease was present on those occasions.

Examination continued:—Medicines were offered, but the Chinese did not believe in European medicines. The food was good and plentiful, and there was nothing to complain of
in the preparation of the food.

17.—No Money Order will be paid unless the advice has been previously received.

18.—Additional Rules for greater security against fraud, and for the better working of the system generally will be made as occasion may require.

19.—Should it appear that Money Orders are used by mercantile men, or others, either in the United Kingdom or at Hongkong, Shanghai or Yokohama, for the transmission of large sums of money, the British or Colonial Post Office, at the same may be, will consider the propriety of increasing the Commission, and will exercise the power of wholly suspending for a time the issue of Money Orders.

By Command,

F. W. MITCHELL,
Postmaster General.

General Post-Office,
Hongkong, 22nd August, 1868.

HONGKONG AND WHAMPOA DOCK COMPANY, LIMITED.

SHAREHOLDERS are requested to take notice that the Eighth call of Fifty Dollars on the new Stock of the above-named Company is due on the 1st March next and will be payable at the office of the HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION, where receipts for the payment thereof will be granted by the Manager according to the following Scale, viz.:—

For sums not exceeding £2, ..... 12 Above £2 and not exceeding £5, ..... 24
" 55 " ..... 27, ..... 42
" 27 " ..... 10, ..... 48

2.—No Money Order to include a fractional part of a Penny.

3.—Orders drawn in the United Kingdom upon Hongkong, Shanghai, and Yokohama, will be paid at the rate of Exchange at which Money Orders are being issued at the time of their presentation.

4.—Alphabetical Lists of over 3,700 Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, shewing the Counties in which they are situated, are hung up for public reference at this Office, and also at Shanghai and Yokohama.

5.—Applicants for Money Orders must furnish, in full, the surname, and, at least, the initial of one Christian name, both of the Remitter and the Payee; if the Remitter or Payee be a Peer or a Bishop, his ordinary title will be sufficient, if a firm, such as "Baring Brothers" will suffice; but the mere name Messrs., such as "Messrs. Rivington," or the name of a Company trading under a title which does not consist of the names of the persons composing it, such as "Caron Co." is inadequate.

6.—The Remitter on stating that the Order is to be paid only through a Bank, to have the option of giving or withdrawing the name of the Payee; in such case, the Order will be crossed in the same way that Cheques are commonly crossed when they are intended to be paid through a Bank.

7.—When an Order is presented through a Bank, a receipt by any person will be sufficient, provided the Order be crossed with the name of the receiving Bank, and be presented by some Person known to be in the employ of such Bank.

8.—The signature of the Payee of a Money Order to be affixed to the Order in the place provided for the purpose. If the Payee is unable to write he must sign the receipt by making his mark in the presence of a Witness, who must sign his name, with his address in the presence of the Officer who pays the Order.

9.—Should the Payee of a Money Order desire to receive payment in the Country in which the Order was issued, at some other Office than that in which the Order was originally drawn, the transfer will be granted, provided the Order be enclosed to the Postmaster of the Office in which it was drawn. In such case a new Order will be issued, the Commission chargeable upon which will be deducted from the amount of the new Order.

10.—In the event of a Money Order miscarrying or being lost, a duplicate will be granted on a written application from the Payee, (containing the necessary particulars, and accompanied by an additional Commission) to the Office where the Original Order was payable.

11.—On the receipt of a similar application, orders will be given to stop payment.
